

WILL
Workshops in Informal Logic and Linguistics
An Argumentation Forum

at
The University of Łódź, Poland
15th May 2016

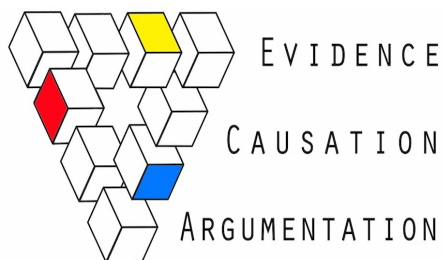

The Department of English and General Linguistics at the University of Łódź, in association with the Evidence, Causation and Argumentation Project, invites you to participate in the first session of WILL: An Argumentation Forum, to be held at the Faculty of Philology in Łódź.

The aim of this meeting is to discuss the theory and practice of argument and reasoning from a linguistics perspective. Topics will depend on the interests of the participants, but are likely to include:

The Language of Argumentation
Argumentation and Experiment in Linguistics
The Nature of Evidence
Informal Logic Fallacies
Materials for Teaching Argumentation
Rhetoric and Persuasion

Rather than presentations followed by a few minutes for discussion, this meeting will feature workshops of about one hour, concentrating on providing a forum for discussion and co-operation. If you are interested in participating in the event or leading a workshop, visit our website or write to will2016lodz@gmail.com for more details.
